

President

Liam Burns is the NUS National President, the lead representative of students and campaigner for their rights. He is the Chair of the National Executive Council and the Trustee Board and convenes the Priority campaign - Education funding.

Purpose of the National Executive Council

The NEC brings together elected representatives from across NUS' different groups to ensure that the organisation is fulfilling the policy mandates from National Conference. It also sets emergency policy, resolves conflicts and prioritises the work and resources of the organisation.

The Block of fifteen are the link members with local students' unions.

Contacting an NEC Member

NEC members are contactable by email. All addresses follow the pattern firstname.lastname@nus.org.uk expect for the Nations which are:

NUS-USI firstname.lastname@nistudents.org
 NUS Scotland firstname.lastname@nus-scotland.org.uk
 NUS Wales firstname.lastname@nus-wales.org.uk

Further contact details are available in the Directory on the NUS Connect Website.

Zones

The policy of NUS is split into 5 zones - Further Education, Higher Education, Society and Citizenship, Union Development and Welfare

Toni Pearce FE Zone Member, Shane Mann FE Zone Member, Usman Ali VP Higher Education, Sophie Richardson HE Zone Member, Dannie Grufferty VP Society & Citizenship, Aakash Naik S&C Zone Member, Ed Marsh VP Union Development, Paddy Stearn UD Zone Member, Pete Mercer VP Welfare, Pete Woodward Welfare Zone Member

Nations

Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland all have their own political structures and executives. They work for students in areas with devolved governments.

Adrienne Peltz NUS-USI President, Stuart Cannell NUS-USI Member, Robin Parker NUS Scotland President, Graeme Kirkpatrick NUS Scotland Member, Luke Young NUS Wales President, Raechel Matthey NUS Wales Member

Other duties

NUS Trustee Board

Vicki Baars, Estelle Hart, Ed Marsh & Adrienne Peltz

Deputy National President Toni Pearce

Board of Endsleigh Insurance Services Ltd Liam Burns and Ed Marsh

Board of NUS Services Ltd Ed Marsh and Raechel Matthey

2 x Clerks to the NEC Stevie Wise and Rachel Wenstone

NUS Democratic Procedures Committee member Ed Marsh

Committee Memberships

Anti-Racism/Anti-Fascism Sub-Committee

Kanja Sesay and Rachel Wenstone (co-chairs), Vicki Baars, Danielle Grufferty, Mark Bergfeld, Pete Mercer

Communications Scrutiny Group

Matt East (chair), Usman Ali, Toni Pearce, Christina Yan Zhang, Joe Oliver

Liberation, Equality & Diversity Action Group

Estelle Hart (chair), One representative from each of the Liberation campaigns, Pete Mercer

Sections

Student Sections are areas where students require specific support due to their mode of study or the way they are considered as students. There are 3 sections; International Students (with a full time officer), Mature and Part time Students and Postgraduate Students.

Christina Yan Zhang International Students' Officer, Matt Wysocki International Student's Member, Fee Wood Mature Students Member, Joshua McKenzie Part-time Students Member, George Charonis Postgraduate Member (research), Dante Micheaux Postgraduate Member (taught)

Liberation

Liberation Campaigns support students who face discrimination because of their gender, race, gender identity, sexual orientation or are disabled by society. There are 4 campaigns.

Kanja Sesay Black Students' Officer, Anil-Joshi Sachdeo BSC Member, Rupy Kaur Disabled Students Officer, Matt Bond DSC Member, Alan Bailey LGBT Officer (Open Place), Vicki Baars LGBT Officer (Womens Place), Estelle Hart Womens' Officer, Kelley Temple Womens' Member

Block of 15

Mark Bergfeld, Nes Cazimoglu, Michael Chessum, Lauren Crowley, Matthew East, Ruby Hirsch, Taylor Kane, Aaron Kiely, Joe Oliver, Surya Prakash Bhatta, Mary Prescott, Joshua Rowlands, Daniel Stevens, Rachel Wenstone, Stevie Wise

The Block of 15 are volunteers. They are allocated link students' unions and are responsible for communicating with those members and also holding the President and Zones accountable for their work.