NUS Wales Conference is where our students' unions set the priorities for the year ahead. Delegates will hear from inspirational speakers, debate the future of NUS Wales. This annual, democratic event is a great place to network with students and activists from across Wales.

Safeguarding

There will be a designated safeguarder online for the duration of the conference.

Code of behaviour

We expect all delegates to adhere to all our event policies, including our equal opportunities policy while participating in the event. We also expect delegates to read and follow NUS' code of conduct at all times. Any breach of these policies will result in delegates being asked to leave the event.
